Anti-White to Reality Translation Guide deconstructing anti-whitism

We are not at peace. We are in a propaganda war. In a propaganda war, words are weapons.

Anti-whites use a number of euphemisms, code words and terms when conducting their anti-white activities. This guide translates those terms into what they really mean.

Anti-whites use these terms to demoralize whites, make them unable to defend themselves racially -to change mass consciousness. This tactic is not illegal and complaining about it is not helpful. In fact, complaining about it, or any other tactic of anti-whites, is childish self-pity.

Learn to spot these terms and ask yourself: “What are they really saying? What are they trying to accomplish? Where are they wrong?”

When speaking of pro-whites, anti-whites take something normal, natural or beneficial and try to make it look bad. When speaking of themselves, they take their genocidal agenda and try to make it look good (see “demoralization” and “gaslighting” in the White Survivalist Dictionary below). Their business is obfuscation -lying- although occasionally an anti-white will admit the truth that they are pro white genocide.

When I say “what it really means”, this has to be taken in the context of the propaganda war being waged against white people. Usually, this means “what it really means when spoken by an anti-white.” Many of these terms also have legitimate meanings which may not match “what it really means.”
